trail RAMAZÂS CLEULIS

The path of shadows on the Moscardo

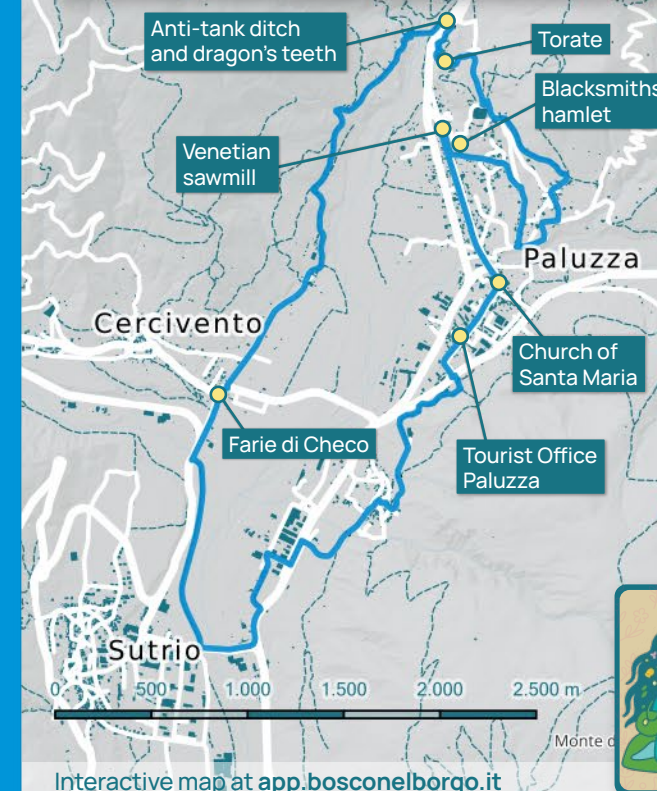

Ancient ways and woodland secrets. This trail follows the Roman road to Cleulis, echoing centuries of journeys, and passes the Moscardo Tower, once guardian of the valley. Along the way you will find huts and clearings, the old village washhouse and the former cooperative dairy, places of work and gathering. A path of history and beauty, where nature, memory and mountain horizons meet.

trail PALUZZA VALLEY FLOOR

The water-powered works trail

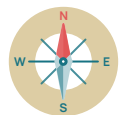

Wood, iron and echoes of war. This valley trail leads to the Church of Santa Maria, the "Farie di Checo" forge, and the Venetian sawmill, restored and once more driven by the mill race. Here, the crafts of wood and iron mingle with scars of twentieth-century conflict. An immersive walk through nature, community and living history.

PALUZZA and SUTRIO

6 circular walks to enjoy together

In Paluzza and Sutrio the mountains are just a step away from the centre. Here, gentle trails brim with surprises, where nature and village life weave into a spellbinding landscape.

These six routes invite you to rediscover the history and folklore of the But Valley. No athlete's training needed: wonder itself will take your breath away.

The trails are designed with families in mind. Each one shows the suggested minimum age, so you can choose the path that best matches your stride and your children's.

For the youngest adventurers, there's a special game to play along the way, meeting the legendary figures of Friuli.

Visit the Tourist Offices of Paluzza or Sutrio (Ufficio Turistico Paluzza and Pro Loco Sutrio) to collect your "Il Bosco nel Borgo game kit" ... and let the adventure begin!
